

1953 Born in Prague, former Czechoslovakia.

1969 – 1978 High school and Medical studies in Zurich, Switzerland.

1979 – 1982 Residency in Anesthesiology, Forensic Medicine, Neurosurgery, Ophthalmology, Zurich, Switzerland

1983 – 1988 Residency in Ophthalmology at Kaplan Hospital, Rehovot, Israel.

1989 – 1990 Clinical Fellowship in Neuro-Ophthalmology at UC San Francisco Medical School, USA

1990 – 1991 Research and teaching appointment at UC Berkeley Dept. of Optometry, USA.

1991 – 2002 Head of Neuro-Ophthalmology, Strabismus and Pediatric Ophthalmology at the University Hospital Zurich, Switzerland.

2002 - 2018 Chair of Ophthalmology Department, University Hospital Zurich and Professor of Ophthalmology, University of Zurich, Switzerland

2013 Sabbatical at Nuffield Department of Clinical Neurosciences, University of Oxford, UK.

Since 2018 Appointed part-time as Medical Education and Equal Opportunity Delegate at the University Hospital Zurich

138 peer reviewed articles, 20 review articles, 16 book chapters

Past president of the Swiss Ophthalmological Society

Past president of the European Neuro-Ophthalmology Society

Senior Fellow of the North American Neuro-Ophthalmology Society

Fellow of the European Board of Ophthalmology

Current President of the Swiss chapter of “Light for the World”, an NGO promoting eye health and inclusion of disabled persons in Sub-Saharan Africa.

Languages: Czech, Russian, German, French, English, Hebrew.

Married to a basic scientist, 2 grown-up children and 2 little granddaughters.

Klara Landau, 14. April 2023