

Christoph Hammerle is professor emeritus of Reconstructive Dentistry of the Center of Dental Medicine, University of Zurich, Switzerland. He is certified in prosthodontics and periodontics and holds a specialist degree in implant dentistry of the Swiss Society of Odontology. In the course of his wide-spread activities he has acquired vast experience and expertise in clinical dentistry as well as in research and education in prosthodontics and implant dentistry.

Christoph Hammerle is or has been a member of various scientific organizations. Board Member of the Swiss Society for Reconstructive Dentistry, Chairman of the Committee for Specialization in Reconstructive Dentistry in Switzerland, Past President of the Osteology Foundation, Past President of the European Association for Osseointegration (EAO), Board Member of the Continental European Division of the IADR (CED), President of the Dental Campus Association. He has served on the organizing committees of several national and international conferences including: Swiss Society of Periodontology, EAO Annual Congresses, EAO Consensus Conferences, Workshops of the European Federation of Periodontology and the Osteology Foundation.

He has received an honorary doctor from the University of Athens, Greece, honorary memberships of the European Association for Osseointegration, the Osteology Foundation and the Swiss Society for Reconstructive Dentistry, and has received the Jerome M. and Dorothy Schweitzer Research Award of the Greater New York Academy of Prosthodontics.

He has published more than 400 scientific and clinical articles, holds an H-factor of 89 (Scopus) and has lectured widely internationally.